

Transforming Homework Culture

Making home-learning work, at home and in school

J. Stanier

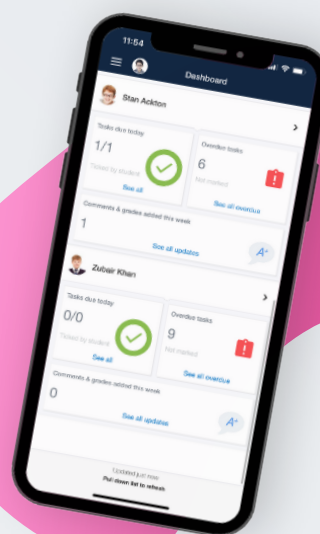

Senior Leader

Great Torrington School

Great Torrington School is a mixed secondary school located in Great Torrington in the English county of Devon, it has academy status. The school's ethos is, "to ensure that all pupils are able to make outstanding progress in their learning and personal development in their 5 years with us. We will look at each cohort as they join Great Torrington School and evaluate the best learning pathway for all the pupils."

How did you use Satchel One during the national lockdown to continue teaching and learning?

Satchel was the main platform for delivering lessons to pupils whilst they were at home. It was key in monitoring the welfare of pupils by looking at the quality and quantity of their work.

What is the greatest benefit your school has seen since using Satchel One?

There has been a transformation in the culture of the school surrounding homework - homework quality has improved significantly as have rates of completion.

Why would you recommend Satchel to another school?

It helps to quickly and simply monitor the quality and frequency of homework being set as well as what is being completed by pupils. It is also great at promoting parental engagement.

Any additional comments?

- It is a really simple system to explain to staff, pupils and parents
- Support has always been quick and effective
- Workload is significantly reduced thanks to the 're-use' function and library

How satisfied are you with Satchel One?

Very satisfied!

